Disciplina, bonitas, and scientia are the cornerstones of our beloved Alma Mater, Altoona Catholic High School. These ideals spotlight the threefold education bestowed on each student. They prompt us to lead a well-ordered life; prepare us to be future citizens of Heaven; and give us our cue to do that which is right. Finally, they direct us to the eternal drama of Salvation.

DEDICATION TO MARY

OUR LEADING LADY

Just as every play must have a leading lady, so too, must the drama of life. We, as Christians, striving for the eternal goal, look toward Mary as this outstanding figure. She has been our guide, our friend, and our Mother.

Within the walls of Catholic High, this Spotless Lady has infused in us a greater appreciation of our faith and has deepened our love for her Divine Son.

In our daily lives, we have found her mantle unfalteringly protecting in times of temptation, and her rosary ever encouraging in the face of trials.

By singular grace and privilege of God, Mary was preserved free from all stain of original sin. To commemorate the anniversary of this, the doctrine of her Immaculate Conception, Our Holy Father has proclaimed 1954 Marian Year throughout the world.

In accordance with the objectives of this year — to inspire men to holiness and to foster greater devotion to the Mother of God — it is only fitting that we, the twenty-ninth graduating class of Altoona Catholic High School, dedicate our Accolade to Mary Immaculate, the "Crystal Fountain of Faith."

OUR PRODUCER

HIS EXCELLENCY, THE MOST REVEREND RICHARD T. GUILFOYLE, D.D.

A TRIBUTE TO BISHOP GUILFOYLE

A most humble servant of Mary, our Producer, the Most Reverend Bishop, has endeavored to promote in us a greater love and devotion for our Lady. Thus he has tried and we hope not in vain, to instill in our souls a love, for the Lovely Lady of the Alleghenies.

We offer him our thanks and appreciation for all that he has done for us. We sincerely hope and pray that as we trod the road of life we shall never forget all he taught us.

May Our Lady watch over him and may her Divine Son bless all his works.

"She is the strength of your wornout wings;
the music of your bells.

Her name is a fringed rose; her name is a steeple-star.

She will bring joy, O earth; she will bring jubilee."

FATHER VINCENT A. LUTHER

Principal of

Altoona Catholic High School

THE PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Let me open with the plea that no graduate read beyond the first paragraph before June 1964. And this for two reasons: 1. The principles enunciated herein are very familiar to you now and thus may tend to bore you; 2. If they have the same ring of familiarity in later years it will mean that you have kept them alive in the living of your daily lives. In other words, time will prove how well you have learned the lesson of Catholic Education.

You graduated from Altoona Catholic High School during the Marian Year 1954 commemorating the declaration of the Dogma of the Immaculate Conception. It was a year of special privilege and grace ordered by the saintly Pontiff, Pope Pius XII, in the hope that people the world over might through prayer and sacrifice come closer to the Queen in the living of the Marian Life. Thus, you were truly MARY'S CLASS! That was your dedication!

You have been taught that everyone, regardless of vocation, must live a holy life. It was explained that holiness consisted in doing the will of God in all things. You were instructed that there was but one reality in the whole world, the IDEAL. The pursuit of the IDEAL would lead to heaven. Refusal to pursue it would lead to hell.

In the Marian Year it was emphasized that the IDEAL should be MARY.

Mary is God's Masterpiece. Gather together all the beauties and wonders of the universe. Put them together. They will not equal the beauty and wonder of Mary. Assemble all the Angels and Saints of Heaven. Measure the depths of their graces. All of these will be lost in the ocean of grace given to Mary because her Son has made her the Treasurer of all grace including the infinite ones that He won for us on the Cross.

This is your IDEAL. You cannot reach it. You can approach it.

What was Mary's impact on the Holy Family at Nazareth? Her husband became a great saint and the Patron of the Universal Church. As the Mother of the Most Perfect of All Sons she died a thousand deaths. She accepted every lash of the scourging, every thorn of the crown, to make them her very own. She endured every insult and in the end, knelt in the silence of holy love as the last sword pierced her heart at the foot of the Cross.

Has love held a similar claim in your life? Love is pure. Love is sacrifice.

What was the impact of Mary's life on those about her, neighbors and friends? They must have been edified. They must have loved her. They must have become Saints. Look at the Magdalene, at Martha, at Mary of Cleophas! And John, Oh yes, John the beloved of Jesus! Beloved because of his purity since he came so close to the Mother!

Are your neighbors and friends closer to God because of your presence?

The years have brought countless opportunities for grace. Have you used them well?

If so, may God bless you even more. Your pursuit of the IDEAL has been leading you heavenwards.

If not, may God have mercy on you. You have been lost in the midst of a dream from which you may not awaken until Judgment Day. And then it will be too late!

Thus speaks a voice from the distant past, that of

Your Principal,

FATHER VINCENT A. LUTHER

FATHER BERNARD O'MALLEY

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR

As the curtain rings down on the final act of this play we can never forget the role played by our assistant director, Father Bernard O'Malley, who has impressed upon our minds the importance of our parts as Catholic citizens in the world of tomorrow! His patience with us during our junior and senior religion classes deserves a curtain call.

THANKS TO ALL OUR MANAGERS

In opening our book, "Life at Catholic High" we must not forget that we are merely the actors in this drama. The ones who deserve the credit for our successful four-year engagement at Altoona Catholic High School are those who have patiently guided us through the rehearsals for the future. These are the managers of our performance:

Our Pastors, who, by their faith, confidence, and financial support, are responsible for the roles we play.

Our Parents who have contributed their constant guidance in training and instructing us in our Catholic faith.

The Faculty, religious and lay, whose patience and understanding in preparing us for life shall never be forgotten.

The Athletic Association which has maintained the football and basketball teams through the unflagging loyalty of its members.

The Band Mothers who have worked tirelessly to support our band and maintain it in all its glory.

Our Friends and Classmates whose financial and moral aid has proved indispensable.

May they all attain the great rewards in Heaven which their actions merit, and may they be forever remembered by the twenty-ninth graduating class of Altoona Catholic High School.

HEART OF MARY

It is there in the powerful thundering storm;
There, in the peaceful morning light;
Even as the endless days
Flow into the darkness of night.
Oh, Heart of Mary!

As the rivers' waves slide out to sea,
So brims the grace of the Maiden,
With purest faith and gentlest hope,
And boundless love 'tis laden —
Oh, Heart of Mary!

From an infant spark it gained its life,
And the flame grew greater still,
'Til it answered the prayer, "Hail, full of grace,"
Dear God! If it be Thy will!
Oh, Heart of Mary!

SCENES FROM THE VILLANOVA CONFERENCE

OUR TRIP TO THE PRESS CONFERENCE

Saturday, September 26, 1953, found part of the Accolade staff at Villanova College for the annual Press Conference, a series of lectures and panel discussions on the basic steps of making a yearbook. This convention, which proved enjoyable as well as informative, equipped us with the proper techniques for producing a successful yearbook — one that we hope will rank high and prove outstanding among those in the history of Catholic High.

Students who attended the conference were: Ann McCormick, William O'Donnell, and Alfred Gschwendtner, seniors; Virginia Peoples, Catherine Wertz, and Donald Rothrauff, juniors; Barbara Huber and Bernard Stalter, sophomores; and Pauline Stetter and Joseph Taylor, freshmen.

After registration at 8:30, we attended the opening addresses at the auditorium which were given by Father McGuire and Father Anthony Ostheimer, the latter, a noted speaker and writer in the field of social science. He is a co-author of the textbook, "Christian Principles and National Problems," which the seniors use in their class, Problems on Democracy. Father McGuire stated, "Man has a more fundamental obligation to tell the truth than to follow the Fifth Amendment." In this instance, he was referring to the necessity imposed on Catholic writers to infuse the teachings of Christ in their writings. He also made clear the crying need for Catholics in the field of journalism. In turn Father Ostheimer said, "A Press in general holds a tremendous influence over us all. Since Americans are prone to follow leadership, the leadership must be of the right kind."

Following these addresses, we separated so that as many lectures could be attended as possible. When the conferences ended, we made a tour of the grounds along with a visit to the beautiful chapel.

Immediately after this, we boarded a train for Philadelphia where we ate supper at a quaint restaurant. A tired but happy and enlightened group finally arrived in Altoona at midnight with no regrets and many pleasant memories of the day's events.

Alfred Gschwendtner and William O'Donnell meet Reverend Anthony Ostheimer, one of the speakers at the Conference.

"The man who gets the most out of life is the one who makes most of himself — who starts out as they did in the olden days to win his spurs and his accolade."

—Annie Fellows Johnson

In the days of chivalry, the esteemed goal of a virtuous man was to attain knighthood. Its realization could be had only through a pure and holy life; through triumph of mind over will. Once attained, it became a man's most cherished possession. It was his tribute, his reward for living as a true knight of Christ — it was his treasured ACCOLADE.

In presenting our book, we have likened it to the Accolade of old. Between its cover are recorded the most treasured events of our years at A. C. H. S.

Our staff has worked diligently to make the Marian Year Accolade a worthy criterion which will live in memory for the years to come.

It is our only regret that one of our former classmates, Therese Shaunessy, who has spent her final year of high school in preparation for the religious life at Marywood College, Scranton, Pennsylvania, with the Sisters of The Immaculate Heart of Mary, has not been able to share with us the joys of producing our yearbook.

Hastings-Elder 19 ACHS 0

The opening game of the season saw an out-for-victory Hastings squad hand ACHS a 19-0 defeat. The first quarter saw Altoona's stone-wall line halt Hastings' three running attempts, but finally George Smith tossed a pass to Ed Stitts, who was in the end zone. Andy Beltowski's free kick gave Hastings a 7-0 lead. Then Smith carried the ball for Hastings to rack up another td, making the score 13-0. Action began again in the third period when Smith grabbed the pigskin to race home for another touchdown. Now it was 19-0. Although the Bettwy-Boslet combination was effective for 40 yards, the Marauders just couldn't cross the Hastings goal.

Cresson 44 ACHS 0

Cresson High's powerful football team proved superior to ACHS when they handed them a 44-0 defeat. Cresson scored once in the first period when Albrano went to paydirt, with Bob Hostler making the extra point. In the second period Cresson's Rickens scored two tds making the score 19-0. During the third period Rickens went through center for one td, and the Albrano pass to Sheridan racked up another. In the fourth quarter Rickens scored his last td with Albrano wrapping up the evening with the final tally.

Spangler 21 ACHS 0

The Marauders bowed to Spangler when the Cambria countians rolled over the Altoonans by scoring 14 points and 7 points in the second and third periods respectively. The Marauders almost scored in the final period when Right End Farabaugh, attempting to punt, was forced to travel with the ball. He galloped 60 yards when he was tackled.

Barnesboro 40 ACHS 6

The first touchdown of the game was scored by Glen Cravner of Barnesboro when he ran 82 yards. Catholic High came back when halfback John Fanelli raced 72 yards for the Marauder's first tally of the season, thus narrowing the margin to 7-6. Then the Cambria countian, Ralph Pagano, scored two touchdowns. Next Cravner with a 32 yard run and Al Sedlock with a short plunge made the score 34-6. Julius Kirley made the final td when he received a 30 yard pass from Frank Frontino.

Cal Abood made both free kicks making the halftime score 14-0. In the second half Bettwy managed to score the only td of the game for Altoona. The Cambria countians kept the offensive until the end of the game when the score was 39-6.

Hollidaysburg 38 ACHS 7

Hollidaysburg's Cloyd White scored the first touchdown of the game when he raced over from the two yard line. This was the beginning of Catholic High's sixth straight defeat. Before the half Hollidaysburg scored two more tds and made good one conversion. After the intermission the H-burgers continued to roll until John Seely raced 40 yards for the last td. The score was 38-7.

The Marauders came through when the Wiley to Bettwy pass combination was good for a touchdown. Wiley threw a pass to Strobaugh for the extra point.

LaSalle 44 ACHS 19

Although LaSalle ran over ACHS to finally hand them a 44-19 defeat, still the Marauders kept fighting to get their highest score of the season, 19 points. Bettwy scored all three tds, and Boslet made the extra point.

Mount Union 34 ACHS 0

The fighting Marauders were defeated again when they ran into a strong Mount Union team which dominated most of the game. The Marauders' most serious threat into Trojan territory was to the 31 yard line.

Claysburg 25 ACHS 0

After six plays Claysburg had its only td in the first half, with Zembower scoring the extra point.

In the third period Cooksey scored for Claysburg.

In the last quarter Zembower caught a stray ACHS pass and raced 28 yards before being tackled on the Marauder 14. Cooksey went over for the td. The Zembower to Woodland pass combination was successful thus making the extra point. Later Julius Romagnoli was tackled on Catholic High's 26 while attempting to punt. Then Zembower scored the final Claysburg td.

Harrisburg Catholic 20 ACHS 14

The Altoona Catholic High School football season came to a close with the Marauders playing one of their best games.

The only scoring in the first period was done by Al DiEsposti who went to paydirt for the Crushers. In the second stanza Harrisburg's Harry Ritter's attempted punt was blocked. Altoona's tackle Purcell fell on the pigskin for the tally. Ted Bettwy's extra kick made the score 7-6 in Altoona's favor. ACHS continued to score when guard Joe DeLeo took a fumbled ball and traveled 63 yards for another Marauder tally. Another free kick by Bettwy made the score 14-6.

In the third period Harrisburg's Larry Fuller scored with DiEsposti making the placement. The score was then 14-13, ACHS still leading.

In the fourth quarter HCHS took over on the ACHS 23 due to a blocked punt. In the last few minutes of the game Bob Piccolo scored for the Crusaders, and Gorman made the extra point.

SYNOPSIS OF OPERETTA

The story of the Song of Norway is, for the most part, founded on actual events in Grieg's life. It concerns itself principally with the influence upon the composer of three people: Nina Hagerup, who became his wife; Rikard Nordraak, Grieg's close friend and composer of the Norwegian anthem, who inspired Grieg to give his native land a musical voice; and the fictional Countess, Louisa Giovanni, representing the influence on Grieg of the sophisticated outside world.

Act I, Scene 1, opens with Rikard Nordraak, the poet writing his poem of Norway and being interrupted by a noisy group of young villagers preparing for their most important feast day, except Christmas, St. John's Eve better known as Midsummer's Eve. During the discussion of his poem and the revival of the legend of the cave on Troldhaugen, Nina Hagerup arrives from Copenhaugen for the celebration.

In Scene 2 the villagers are gathered in the square awaiting the hour for the celebration to begin when they are awed by the presence of Count Peppi LeLoup and his wife, Louisa Giovanni, a distinguished and temperamental opera singer. She becomes fascinated by Grieg's playing and hires him as her touring accompanist. Before leaving Grieg announces his engagement to Nina Hagerup.

Throughout Act II we follow Grieg and the Countess through many phases of their tours, showing the widening breach between Grieg and his purpose of giving Norway a musical voice. The patient persistence of his wife, Nina and the death of Rik, finally culminates in his returning to Norway and completing his music to Rik's poem, the famous A minor concerto.

"A Stranger in Paradise."

The Trio all set for rehearsal.

Behold! The Countess in a burst of song.

CSMC AT ACHS

The aim of the Catholic Students' Mission Crusade is an educational one — to acquaint Catholic students of the United States with the mission problems of their Church in every part of the world, the homeland as well as the countries overseas. The Crusade's program is in three parts: prayer, study and sacrifice.

Here at Catholic High, we help in our own diocese; we collect stamps and Catholic magazines for missions; we send contributions to the Indian and Negro Missions in the South and West and to the leper colonies in South America. Altar linens purchased by our pennies also have been sent to needy missions. We of 1954 fervently hope and pray that the CSMC will prosper in future years at ACHS.

The scene below which could be taken any day of the week — Father O'Malley teaching us the truths of our religion. Left to right are: Sophie Kolarczyk, Don Dorman, Father O'Malley, Pat Rogers and Ann Kochera.
